h.Art is a must for art lovers and anyone with a creative leaning

L-R: Guy Butcher- h.Art, Canon Frome, Matt Sanderson – h.Art, Rotherwas, Janine White, h.Art, Hereford, Joe Windsor, h.Art, Ross on Wye

This year almost 300 artists are participating at over 100 venues in bountiful Herefordshire. If you are someone who gets a buzz out of meeting interesting people and seeing the work of talented creatives, this is your annual opportunity. Artists open their studio sanctuaries to the public and get together to put on exciting exhibitions in fascinating locations from a reclamation centre, Old Cricket Pavilion to an Arts & Craft church. Many of them only do this once a year, giving you the rare opportunity to talk to them about their creative practice and what makes them tick and of course buy or commission direct, so you get a real connection to the artwork. “Herefordshire seems a place for amazing talent” 2016 visitor

IMAGE: Wendy Houghton, h.Art, Ledbury

There are so many artists and venues to choose from, some at the beginning of their career like our two Emerging Artist Bursary winners, Janine White and Mariana Pavlova. Or seasoned artists like Mark Turner (RCA), Silvia Pastore, Vanessa Pomeroy and Julian Meredith to name a few.

You won't want to miss, Mizuki Takahashi's very contemporary pared back enamel jewellery at The Old Mayor's Parlour in Hereford, exhibiting alongside Rhiannon Williams with her beautifully detailed textiles and Nick Holmes' colourful abstracts. Matt Sanderson's metal sculpture near the City in a reclamation centre, David England's stone sculpture studio at Much Birch, Guy Butcher's handsome furniture and his new 'cool' bodyboards at Canon Frome. A host of artists in the North including prints by Tricia Mitchell, Nancy Sutcliffe's exquisite etched glass, Lois Hopwood's landscapes and Corinna Kenyon-Wade's bright ceramics.

An exhibition of UK artists, shortlisted for an international residency at the Sidney Nolan Trust, home to Sidney Nolan's studio, open this year as part of his centenary and over 30 artists at Kingsland Church.

Over in the West you'll find Menna Angharad's oil paintings, prints of every type at The Print Shed, watercolours by Lizzie Harper and Lea Gregory. In the South, you can see three artist studios side by side in Ross – Sharon Curtis, Ali Tregaskes, Joe Windsor, or a diverse group at Brockhampton's Arts & Crafts church. In the East of the County you've got contemporary sculpture and paintings in the beautiful farm setting of Canwood Gallery. In Ledbury, you'll discover a wide variety of ceramics and textiles, including Wendy Houghton's porcelain paper clay creations, or delve into the country lanes and find artists exhibiting in a vineyard and a former cow shed. There are many, many more, just too many to mention, so get a preview of what might appeal to you on the website.

h.Art Guides including a pull-out map are free at various tourist locations from late July. But if you prefer you can pre-order a h.Art guide by post (post and packaging costs apply). Contact h.Art through the website www.h-art.org.uk

PENALLT ART FESTIVAL

31ST AUG - 3RD SEPT 2017

The Penallt Art Festival was conceived eight years ago when a small group of local artists and residents in the village of Penallt came together to organise an exhibition of eclectic art. The festival is now recognised by artists and visitors from far afield and this, our seventh year, promises to be even better than before.

We continue to attract top artists and makers like the renowned potter, our patron, Walter Keeler, and portrait artist Richard Wills, not only to show but to demonstrate as well.

Each year, numbers attending grow and the organising team make great efforts to ensure adequate parking management and also that all parts of the site are accessible by those with mobility problems.

Over 100 leading local and international artists and makers have showcased their work over the four days of the festival and sales are consistently high. Curator Ann Bradley is now completing the process of sifting applications from invited exhibitors and hard at work developing a contemporary theme for this year's fine art show.

Selecting exhibitors is never an easy task and to ensure that each year the show brings in exciting new blood the team normally does not select exhibitors for more than two consecutive years. This makes sometimes for tough choices.

The festival is centred on Capel Pentwyn, an imaginatively converted Arts and Crafts period church, a small but light building with excellent wall space. The church is transformed each year from a luxury holiday home into an art gallery. Alongside Capel Pentwyn, in the middle of the village, is Babington Meadow, a novel ecological village park. This becomes a further area for display and demonstrations by artists and makers, all set under large marquees. The two adjacent sites complement each other, the chapel being a calm, quiet space full of interesting, original artwork whilst the Meadow is an animated centre of action and creativity.

The show will open in Capel Pentwyn on the evening of Thursday August 31st with a free drinks reception where the public can meet the artists. There will also be art courses in Pelham Hall over the weekend, led by local artists.

The main exhibition in Capel Pentwyn runs from Friday 1st to Sunday 3rd September and is open from 10 to 4. Demonstrations and further exhibits will be on show in Babington Meadow on both the Saturday and the Sunday when there will be a refreshment terrace serving delicious locally prepared snacks and drinks. Of course, the highly regarded Inn at Penallt is just around the corner for those making a day of it and the Michelin starred Whitebrook is a 5 minute drive down the Whitebrook Valley.

Art in Penallt is a not for profit organisation whose aim is to organise an annual art festival in the village of Penallt. The festival organisers are all local volunteers and work in partnership with Babington Meadow, a registered charity, and have also developed a close association with Made in Monmouthshire and local schools. The purpose is to stimulate interest and enthusiasm amongst all age groups in the artistic process of creating a broad range of art and craft forms and to sell a wide variety of high quality artwork.

For other details please visit us on Facebook.

How to find us: Penallt is four miles south of Monmouth. The exhibition areas at Capel Pentwyn and Babington Meadow are in the centre of the village of Penallt at NP25 4SE, Pelham Hall is a short distance away at NP25 4AH.

GREAT BRITISH ARTISTS

A collection of the very best artists the UK has to offer, our August 'Great British Artists' are a mix of bold, bright and truly fabulous creations.

Mark is an artist who grew up in West Wales and draws inspiration from the Landscape although subject matter and application at times can be very different. He adores using colour while interpreting the light, weather conditions and a love for the materials. Sketching is at the heart of his work. He is Tutoring a painting course in Tuscany this July and has work currently at Oriel Y Bont, Aberystwyth. 'Dinas Bran' shown, is currently for sale at 'Gallery at No.3' in Ellesmere, Shropshire.

Joss turned to art at the age of 58, and sells her work worldwide. It is displayed in galleries in America too. She uses different media and techniques, and loves experimenting. She does African art, faces, flowers and pets. Joss has exhibited at the Mall Galleries, London Pastel Show (4 years), and also at the Flux exhibition (3 years). Vibrant colour and sometimes distorted figures makes her work impactful and dynamic.

JO WEST ART

Based on the South Coast of Devon, Jo is the first UK artist to produce colour changing resin artwork, selling professionally since 2016. The practice is self-taught and Jo primarily takes her influence from her rural upbringing, exploring themes around nature. "I always want to help people feel good about themselves, we are surrounded by illness and chaos in our lives and sometimes just stopping and breathing in nature's beauty can change how we are feeling".

www.jowestart.co.uk

My art is mainly inspired by natural history, home grown and domestic fauna. I also enjoy adding narrative to my paintings, as my interest has always lay in illustration, conveying or eluding to a story through art has always filled me with pleasure, and i believe, only adds to peoples interest and intrigue.

I studied my Illustration Degree at HCAD Hereford after a year of foundation at Glyn Taff, Pontypridd and learnt many useful techniques and methods that have proven invaluable to me, especially now, owning my own gallery and teaching around 100 students every week, but admit my heart belongs to watercolour and occasionally manipulating oil and acrylic with techniques to give the look and feel of watercolour, I like to put my own contemporary twist on the traditional techniques as well as themes.

I have been a commissioned artist and illustrator for the last 10 years, having completed 100's of individual orders, as well as having illustrated a number of children's books, including 'Foxgloves' by E. King, and a children's tale about the first Royal Corgi written by HRH biographer Brian Howe. I enjoy the challenge of new commissions and welcome them whenever I have the time, some are often 'off the wall', but I would appear to be the one to go with as my customers often prefix their request with "I know this will sound mad, but..."

My work is primarily available at my own gallery, Giles Gallery, Pontyclun, mostly for logistic reasons, but other outlets include Victoria Fern Gallery, Rhiwbina, The Workers Gallery, Ynyshir and Lemon Blues Pentre as and when work is available.

Processes for creating a commission have varied for me over the years from solely working from photographs to rolling around on the floor with a giant greyhound trying to get a good idea of his character, Giles Gallery won the first ever national High Street Hero Award and I think it is a lot to do with how welcomed people feel here. Art is as much about the people, if not more, than just selling paintings.

Open Day at CRiC

The CRiC staff and volunteers are looking forward to Saturday 8 July when they will welcome visitors with the offer of free coffee and warm hospitality during the charity's Open Day. This has become an annual opportunity to catch up with friends while browsing, testing and even occasionally 'tasting' the carefully selected and growing range of Welsh and local products. A wonderful collection of books, textiles, ceramics and other gifts are on offer in celebration of the national 'Year of Legends'. Characters from the Mabinogion and other Welsh legends have manifested themselves anew in the literature and art of the area.

It is also the ideal opportunity to investigate volunteering in this dynamic organisation which has become the focal point of many community activities or find out more about the varied services offered.

The Open Day will also see the start of the oriel CRiC gallery's Summer exhibition which will this year include a number of printmakers reflecting a wide range of styles that are alive in printmaking today, such as Hannah Firmin, Frans Wesselman and Lee Wright to name but a few.

Helen Arthur, Hannah Firmin, Frans Wesselman

The exhibition will continue until 11th September. With the support of the Rotary Club of Crickhowell, art work by Crickhowell High School senior students will once again be shown during the Open Day and following week. This has been a very popular and much anticipated addition to the annual gallery program. Centre manager Jan Morgan said, "The Open Day has become something of an annual celebration and we look forward to welcoming everyone to this informal showcase of what the centre has to offer. We are very pleased that 'Black Mountain Roast' is sponsoring the coffee as this year's event will showcase coffee, chocolate and other culinary delights."

CRiC is open daily from 10 till 5, Sundays 10 till 1.30 and offers a small coffee bar and retail area, internet access, photocopying and office facilities, room hire, tourism and local information and the upstairs oriel CRiC gallery.

JOCELYN PROSSER ART

www.jocelynprosser.co.uk

With an attraction to folk art – from the primitive Haitian images to Frida Kahlo, whom she sees as using art to release emotional instability, Jocelyn Prosser's art too has great depth of imagination with a totally unique execution. Inspired by her own eclectic, primitive art collection, such as Shona carvings from Zimbabwe and dolls made in the 1940's, Jocelyn also cites Swiss painter Paul Klee as an original with a visionary quality.

"I am an intuitive artist working in mixed media. My work could possibly be described as outsider, primitive or visionary. The idea of joining and mixing components to create art is a personal compulsion. I have always collected and stored interesting objects. My work reflects to create something new from something old. I have a particular interest in collage and assemblages. My work is currently on sale at White Court Art."

Ipixel Art

"I'm proud to let my customers do the talking"

Paul Burgess

"Hats off yet again to Craig at IPixel Art, I had to get some prints done but Craig was so busy he couldn't see me until 5pm, which was obviously when he should have been going home. He spent over one and a half hours going through everything with a fine tooth comb and wouldn't stop until it was all perfect. It's a real pleasure to work with someone who is so conscientious about what they do and reassuring that my work is in such professional hands."

Tracey-Anne Stitch

"I've been going to I-Pixel since 2007 and will continue to take my watercolours for capture because Craig always delivers - fast, efficient, friendly service and beautiful prints, which I'm hard pressed to tell apart from my originals"

Lee Wright

"Since using IPixel Art to produce fine art reproductions of my work I have been able to reach a wider audience, thus dramatically increasing my profile and the revenues of my art business. I have been incredibly impressed at the skill and determination of Craig in ensuring that the reproductions of my art always look as good, and often better, than the originals!"

David Day

"I have used IPixel Art for many years. Craig has always been extremely helpful and has never let me down on urgent jobs. Craig is prepared to work closely with the artist, and the quality of the prints are incredible. My customers have regularly commented to me on how amazed they are with the printed versions of my work."

Goff Danter

"IPixel Art has made a major contribution to the development of my reputation as a professional artist. Craig's commitment to providing the best possible service by understanding the needs of his customers has enabled me to reach a much larger audience, sooner than expected."

Jeremy Thomas

"IPixel Art has been reproducing my work for many years and has helped me enormously, he has an attention to detail that is second to none, working tirelessly to ensure that the subtleties in colour are captured perfectly and the printed image is beautifully crisp and clear. Craig is always prompt and professional, but above all else, a thoroughly nice guy. I'm always impressed by IPixel Art... thanks for all the hard work."

For over 12 years I-Pixel have been fortunate enough to have worked with a diverse range of both established and fledgling artists. Above you can see some of the testimonials given by just a small selection of them. I-Pixel Art specialise in the capture and reproduction of fine art, producing limited or open edition prints.
