Guitar building course 2016

Learn to build your very own handmade, electric or acoustic guitar, under professional, friendly and supportive guidance.

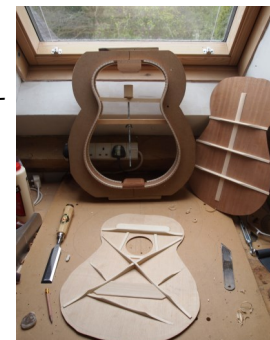

Courses are run on a one-to-one or small group basis. Places are limited so book early to avoid disappointment. Sessions run at your own pace and are individually tailored to your own experience and skill level.

Some previous woodworking experience would be beneficial, but by no means essential.

Sessions cost £18 per hour with specialist tools and equipment provided. Materials are extra and guidance can be given when choosing timbers.

Building a guitar generally takes around 6 months

Watercolour workshops with Alison Fennell...

If you've ever wanted to delve into the wonderful world of watercolours, you won't go far wrong with the delightful Alison Fennell. With her wildlife paintings jumping out of the page, she not only shares her talents but helps you unleash yours.

With many years of experience and some incredible accolades of her own, Alison's work has been seen in 'Leisure Painter' and used by the well known brands Dunelm and the high street giant John Lewis. Alison's style captures nature in its most natural state, with a little hint of magical spatter. A format that has showcased birds in flight to the humble fox, each gloriously vibrant.

With regular demonstrations at art societies throughout South Wales, Alison runs two busy classes in Cardiff and Pontypridd.

The 14th CAERLEON FESTIVAL – ALMOST THERE!

The celebrations start in June and continue through July.

"A Midsummer Night's Dream" performed by the "Rain or Shine Theatre Company" in the garden of "The Wheatsheaf" at Llanhennock on Sunday 5th June and music from Robin Williamson at Llanhennock Village Hall on Saturday 11th start the festivities. A "Farmers' Market" in Caerleon Town Hall on Sunday 19th whets the appetite for what is to follow.

From the 1st to the 10th July a packed ten days of performance and participation await you in the ancient Roman legionary fortress town of Caerleon – drama, literature, poetry, comedy, music, dance, arts, crafts, sculpture and more.

Internationally acclaimed poet and author, Owen Sheers, will be appearing at St. Cadoc's Church as will the famous "Morrison Orpheus Choir". "Lit on the Lawn" of the Priory Hotel will offer the opportunity to hear authors talk about their recent work including Angela V. John, Peter Finch, Holly Muller, Richard King and Rachel Trezise; and enjoy "The All Wales Comic Verse Competition" with guest poet – Costa Award Winner – Jonathan Edwards.

The clamour for comedy will be further met with a performance of "Hamlet" by the renowned "Festival Players Company" – it was not to be – instead a tragedy – in the Roman Amphitheatre where a champagne bar will offer some comfort.

Bands both plugged and unplugged will perform in pubs.

The climax will be "The Big Free" weekend on the quayside of the historic Hanbury Arms, in the garden of the Bell Inn and on the Festival Field with live music from 45 bands/performers, arts, crafts, sculpture and exhibitors.

There's more. Fresh from Glastonbury and Womad "The Eastpointers" will star at the Bell Inn on Wednesday the 27th July, and in the Autumn we have John Watterson, Richard Dignance, the "Treorchy Male Choir" and "Belshazzar's Feast" in prospect.

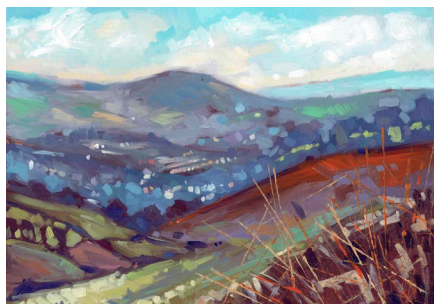

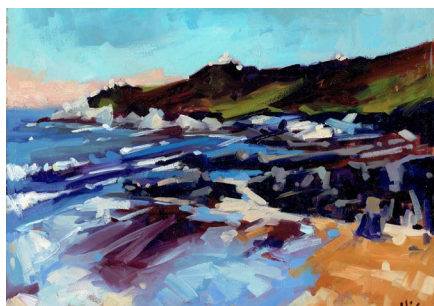

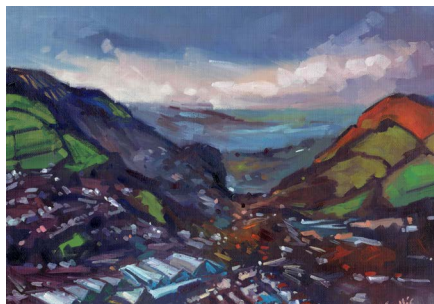

"To be, or not to be" – there is no doubt – Caerleon is the place to be! Legend, history and mystery are there for all to see – King Arthur's Camelot? Roman Fortress. Medieval Castle. AND THE FESTIVAL!

Forty@Forty, Y Galeri Caerphilly

31 May - 2 July 2016

Launched on 4th June 2pm - 5pm

Well, this May I turned 40! Some people may celebrate that with a big party involving lots of alcohol and silliness, some people might go on a holiday in the sun; some people might not want to celebrate it at all. But me - I've decided to mark my significant birthday by producing forty paintings of places that have been special to me in my 40 years.

The paintings include Bath - where I went to University. The beaches around the Gower - the location of many camping weekends and days out, Cornwall and North Devon - a very special place which I regard as a second home and where I got married. Seil Island in the Western Isles of Scotland, which recently stole my heart, and of course the South Wales Valleys where I was born, raised and which always inspire me. Unlike my 365 project the paintings vary in size and price.

Other events I have coming up this summer -

The National Eisteddfod of Wales is being held in Abergavenny this year so my studio will be open throughout the event 29 July - 6 August. It's just a short stroll from the show ground - The Attic Studio, 24 Nevill Street, Abergavenny.

I have a weeklong exhibition at the CRiC studio in Crickhowell 27 August - 3rd September. I will be exhibiting paintings, prints and cards and will be there every day painting and talking to visitors.

Paul Burgess

"Hats off yet again to I-Pixel - I had to get some prints done but Craig was so busy he couldn't see me until 5pm, which was obviously when he should have been going home. He spent over one and a half hours going through everything with a fine tooth comb and wouldn't stop until it was all perfect. It's a real pleasure to work with someone who is so conscientious about what they do and reassuring that my work is in such professional hands."

Tracey-Anne Stitch

"I've been going to I-Pixel since 2007 and will continue to take my watercolours for capture because they always deliver - fast, efficient, friendly service and beautiful prints, which I'm hard pressed to tell apart from my originals"

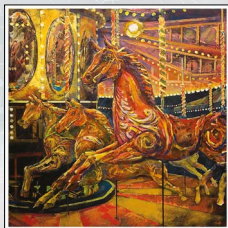

Lee Wright

"Since using I-Pixel to produce fine art reproductions of my work I have been able to reach a wider audience, thus dramatically increasing my profile and the revenues of my art business. I have been incredibly impressed at the skill and determination of Craig in ensuring that the reproductions of my art always look as good, and often better, than the originals!"

David Day

"I have used I-Pixel for many years. They have always been extremely helpful and have never let me down on urgent jobs. They are prepared to work closely with the artist, and the quality of the prints are incredible. My customers have regularly commented to me on how amazed they are with the printed versions of my work."

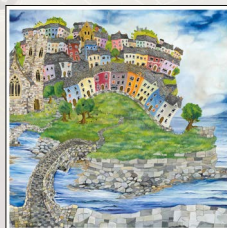

Goff Danter

"I-Pixel have made a major contribution to the development of my reputation as a professional artist. Their commitment to providing the best possible service by understanding the needs of their customers has enabled me to reach a much larger audience, sooner than expected."

Jeremy Thomas

"I-Pixel have been reproducing my work for many years and have helped me enormously. They have an attention to detail that is second to none, working tirelessly to ensure that the subtleties in colour are captured perfectly and the printed image is beautifully crisp and clear. They are always prompt and professional, but above all else, they are thoroughly nice guys. I'm always impressed by I-Pixel... thanks for all the hard work."

For over 10 years I-Pixel have been fortunate enough to have worked with a diverse range of both established and fledgling artists. Above you can see some of the testimonials given to us by just a small selection of them. At I-Pixel we specialise in the capture and reproduction of fine art, producing limited or open edition prints. Using state of the art printers, we can produce stunning reproductions across a range of media.
